ABSTRACT

This workbook provides information, answers to questions, and the "Student Leadership Practices Inventory" (Student LPI). After careful research with student leaders, similar to previous research in business, the Student LPI was designed to measure leadership practice in college students. The Student LPI helps college students discover the extent to which they engage in the five leadership practices: (1) "Challenging the Process"; (2) "Inspiring a Shared Vision"; (3) "Enabling Others to Act"; (4) "Modeling the Way"; (5) "Encouraging the Heart." Chapters in the Student Workbook are: (1) "Leadership: What People Do When They're Leading"; (2) "Questions Frequently Asked about the Student LPI"; (3) "Recording Your Scores," which explains both "Self" and "Observer" scoring; (4) "Interpreting Your Scores"; (5) "Summary and Action-Planning Worksheets." Ten suggestions (two for each leadership practice area) are provided for "meeting the leadership challenge." (EMK)
